The Italian American Association of Monmouth County, NJ invites you to come celebrate

CARNEVALE

Date: Sunday, February 11, 2018
Time: 2:00 pm to 6:00 pm
Place: The Reception Center at St. Clement, Rt. 79, Matawan, NJ
Price: $25 Children (Ages 4 to 10); $38 Adults

CARNEVALE is the Italian Mardi Gras Festival which is celebrated for days leading up to "Fat Tuesday". The Italians feast on traditional foods, masquerade, dance and parade before the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday, when they begin to fast. The price for the family celebration will include: Buffet luncheon consisting of traditional CARNEVALE foods, (a cash bar is also available), face painting, balloon art, characters and puppet show for the kids, singing and traditional Italian music and dancing, (audience participation is welcome).
In keeping with the tradition, we encourage you to wear costumes however, it is optional. Masks will be distributed to adults while the children will make their own. There will be a costume parade, best costume and best mask awarded. Featured will also be an auction table and a 50-50 drawing.
